

2022 Programme

January 13

Getting the Shakes: The MVGS Seismometer and What it Does

Dr Mark Eller, MVGS Chairman

February 10

Bumps in the Bay: enigmatic, circular, seafloor structures off the Jurassic Coast

Prof Dan Bosence, Royal Holloway, University of London

March 10

A History of Plants in 50 Fossils

Dr Paul Kenrick, Natural History Museum, London

April 14

Did the Earth Move for You ? Measuring tiny ground movements from space

Dr Philippa Mason, Imperial College, London

May 12

Why is Venus so Different from Earth ?

Dr Richard Ghail, Royal Holloway, University of London

June 9

Summer Soirée

Members' Presentations and Fizz...

July 14

Key Controls on Continental Rift Development: is breaking up hard to do ?

Dr Rebecca Bell, Imperial College, London

September

*Lecture on & Field Trip to Pembrokeshire

Dates and leader t.b.a.

October 13

MVGS AGM

Followed by nibbles & drinks

November 10

Fire, Society & Culture: Excavations at the 400,000 year old site at Barnham, Suffolk

Prof Nick Ashton, British Museum, London

December 8

Christmas Soirée

Members' presentations, mulled wine & mince pies

*Other field trips will be announced as they are arranged: keep an eye on the website